Gentlemen--

I have recently heard the statement made in public that the FBI has information that Martin Luther King is a Communist, and that J. Edgar Hoover. has twice said publicly that he knows this to be a fact. May I ask for some information from you regarding the validity of this accusation against Dr. King?

Thank you for your assistance.

Yours respectfully,

Reference is made to Los Angeles letterhead memorandum (LHM) dated November 8, 1967, pertaining to one Harold J. Thome.

The files [redacted] caused to be checked on November 8, 1967, reflected that [redacted] California, 5'10" tall, born in Illinois, a machinist, had registered a preference for one of the major political parties as of August 1, 1960.

The files [redacted] caused to be checked on November 14, 1967, reflected no record for [redacted] b7

The files [redacted] Los Angeles, California, caused to be checked on November 13, 1967, reflected that [redacted] California, had been arrested for disturbing the peace. This charge resulted from [redacted] attempting to enter a neighbor's home without reason and then threatening the neighbor with a gun. The wife of [redacted] indicated that they were trying to have him recommitted to Camarillo State Hospital.

These same files also reflect that [redacted] California, was arrested [redacted] for driving under the influence. When [redacted] was stopped by the officers they noticed a strong odor of alcoholic beverage on [redacted] breath; he staggered when he walked; his speech was slurred; and his statements confused. The officers noted that [redacted] car had a .410 shotgun over the dashboard, which was not loaded.

[REDACTED] advised on November 13, 1967, that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), had arrived in Chicago at approximately 1:00 p.m. on November 11, 1967. King had arrived in Chicago on Northwest Airlines from Atlanta, Georgia, SCLC headquarters. King was in Chicago as featured speaker at the University of Chicago, Center for Continuing Education, where an anti Viet Nam conference, The National Labor Leadership Association for Peace, was being held over the period November 10 through 12, 1967. b7(D)

[REDACTED] advised that King had departed Chicago either late during the evening of November 11, 1967, or early November 12, 1967, reportedly for New York City, New York. While King had been in Chicago, there had been no incidents or disturbances connected with his business here.

Attached to this memorandum are articles from Chicago's daily news media; these articles containing excerpts from King's remarks in his appearance on November 11, 1967, at the Center for Continuing Education.

Dr. King Asks Labor To Voice Dissent To Viet War

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. encouraged more than 450 labor leaders Saturday to voice their dissent to the Vietnam war.

He spoke at the University of Chicago to the National Labor Leadership Assembly for Peace, a new group formed to challenge organized labor's official support of the war.

"Tens of millions of Americans oppose the war in Vietnam," said the winner of the Nobel prize. "Never in our history has there been such a passionate and enormous popular resistance to a current war."

"But one voice was missing—the loud, clear voice of labor. You here today will long be remembered as those who had the courage to speak out and the wisdom to be right."

Constantly interrupted by applause, Dr. King told the labor leaders not to let dissent become "another casualty of the Vietnam war."

He listed what he called three disastrous domestic consequences of the war: It has worsened the poverty program; it has alienated many Americans, particularly the young; and it has given the radical right a chance to rally support by playing for patriotism.

"The war has made the Great Society a mess and replaced it with the muddled and confused society," claimed Dr. King.

He asserted the Johnson administration poured $76 billion this year into Vietnam while spending only $2 billion to fight poverty at home.

Especially the Negro has suffered the civil rights leader said.

"The war has smothered and nearly extinguished the beginnings of progress toward racial justice," he said. "The war has created the bizarre spectacle of the armed forces of the United States fighting in ghetto streets in America while they are fighting in jungles in Asia."

"The war has so increased Negro frustration and despair that urban outbreaks are now an ugly feature of the American scene. How can the administration with quivering anger denounce the violence of ghetto Negroes when it has given an example of violence in Asia that shocks the world?"

Turting to the reaction of the American people to the war, Dr. King said large numbers—especially the young—are becoming disillusioned with the American way.

"The young generation is the generation of wars and it shows the scars in widespread drug consumption, alienation and the feverish pursuit of sensual pleasures," he said.

"Yet, we cannot call this the lost generation because it is we who failed to give them the peaceful society they were promised as the American heritage."

Finally, Dr. King charged the war "has given the extreme right, the anti-labor, anti-Negro and anti-humanistic forces, a weapon of spurious patriotism to galvanize its supporters into reaching for power right up to the White House."

Referring to California Gov. Ronald Reagan, Dr. King said he was horrified at the prospect of a "Hollywood performer" becoming a "leading war-hawk candidate for the Presidency."

Dr. King called for a reassessment of the nature of American government. He said the Johnson administration had assumed "excessive executive powers," and he criticized Congress for acquiescing.

"The government is emotionally committed to the war," Dr. King said, "but it is emotionally hostile to the needs of the poor. It is conducting mythical guerrilla warfare against the defenseless poor of our nation."

After Dr. King's speech, the labor leaders broke up into six panel discussions of various aspects of the American involvement in Vietnam.

One of the discussion leaders, Tim Van Dine, former South Vietnamese ambassador to Washington, urged that the United States quit bombing North Vietnam and recognize the Viet Cong as a rightful negotiating force.

"If you do this, I have no doubt that negotiations to end the war would come about very quickly," said the Buddhist who served his government in 1959 and 1961.

In another panel discussion, Rep. John Conyers (D-Mich.) criticized "callous indifference" in Congress to the poverty program.

But the Negro legislator found room for optimism. He said he was among only four or five congressmen who voted against all war appropriations when he entered Congress last year, but the number now has grown to about 40.

A third discussion leader, Columbia University Prof. Seymour Melman, estimated that Defense Sec. Robert McNamara's proposed programs would total $160 billion over the current spending rate in the next five years. He said this would more than double the current defense expenditure rate.

He said this kind of expenditure would make it impossible to raise the estimated $215 billion necessary to eliminate poverty in America.

"It is simply not true," he said, "that we can have guns and butter at once."

Rev. King sees election of Negro mayor here in 10 yrs.

By Roy Olson

DR. MARTIN LUTHER King said yesterday a Negro may be elected mayor of Chicago within the next 10 years.

King, during a news conference in the University of Chicago Center for Continuing Education, included Chicago among 8 to 10 of the nation's cities that might have Negro mayors within a decade.

In the wake of Negro successes in Gary and Cleveland, King said he believed Newark "might be next," and named St. Louis and Atlanta.

King said the "political machine in Chicago is too strong and too well-oiled to hold out much possibility that a Negro will be elected mayor within the next 3 or 4 years."

King, here to address the National Labor Leadership Assembly for Peace, said victories by Richard Hatcher in Gary and Carl Stokes in Cleveland had "given new hope to Negroes."

"THIS SHOWS THAT Negroes can make progress thru the political process without resorting to violence and other activities," he said.

King said he might break away from his custom of not urging candidates to support the Republican opponent of President Johnson next year if that opponent "presents a reasonable alternative to the administration's course in Viet Nam."

The civil rights leader would not indicate the proposed plan of Sen. Eugene McCarthy (D., Minn.) to oppose Johnson in four primary elections next year, but termed it "a significant move."

"I WOULD ENCOURAGE anyone to provide an alternative to the President's policies in Viet Nam," King said.

King acknowledged he and 2 or 10 other Americans had sent a wire to the North Vietnamese government urging the release of three ailing American prisoners of war.

He said the three were turned over to a representative of an American peace committee in Cambodia yesterday.

King said additional wires might be sent encouraging the release of other American POW's.

In his speech to about 500 persons, King warned that proposed cuts in the nation's anti-poverty program, "could be an invitation to violence in the streets of our beleaguered urban areas."

"CONGRESS WOULD be waging political guerrilla warfare against the defenseless poor of the nation," King told the assembly, sponsored by the Trade Union division of the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy.

King said he understood that proposed cuts in the anti-poverty program would cost 272,000 of the nation's youngsters from Headstart projects and 250,000 from youth corps programs and would eliminate 50,000 jobs created by the war on poverty.

He termed this "immoral and irresponsible" and said it resulted from the "shameful orders of priorities which have stemmed from the war in Viet Nam."

Director of Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

b7(c) I am a worried and concerned housewife and mother of [redacted] Michigan and a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church [redacted]

Last week at our Synod meeting I presented copies of a congressional record (which I am enclosing) to the people in our group and telling them that I did not think that it was right to have a person like Martin Luther King featured in our third grade religion book.
("We Follow Jesus," published by Benzinger Brothers)
In the book it states, "The Holy Spirit gives Dr. King the courage to continue his work. Dr. King is brave.
He is like Jesus." The people were not even interested enough to read the report with the exception of one - one of the sister's of our school. She sent the copy to a political science teacher at Mary Groove College in Detroit saying that she should know if the report was accurate and authentic. After talking with this political science teacher, sister told me of the congressional report and I quote, "This is the lowest kind of smear and that anyone can report to congress and get affidavits to collaborate the story and that communism has been very inactive in the United States in the last 30 years." I was not to sure how official and accurate congressional reports were, but I absolutely do not believe that the communist have not been active here for the last 30 years.

Is she right that this is just a smear tactic and how active is the communist party in the United States today. I have your book "Masters of Deceit" but could you send be signed information about Martin Luther King and how active the communist party is now. And also what we can do to combat communism.

Also I am enclosing a report (copy) by Father Dan Lyons, S.J. How close to correct are his statements.

Hoping to hear from you soon

REC-17 100-106670-3121
Very sincerely yours, save the taxpayers billions of dollars. Wisely used, they probably could.

MARCH ON MONTGOMERY—THE UNTOLD STORY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under previous order of the House, the gentleman from Alabama (Mr. Dickinson) is recognized for 1 hour.

Mr. DICKINSON. Mr. Speaker, last week Alabama witnessed the climax to weeks of civil rights activities in my State. It was a week which brought literally thousands of men and women of many races, colors, and creeds to participate in what has been widely concurred in as a kind of holy crusade for human rights. During this period there were scores of confrontations between demonstrators and law enforcement agencies—resulting in many arrests. There was discord, there was violence, there was death, all of which we deplore. From all of this a completely distorted picture of the State of Alabama has been painted. It is a picture of a place peopled by vicious, racist bigots whose only joy is found in the suppression of the Negro race; in the denial of the Negro's right to vote and to participate as a first-class citizen of his State and his Nation; a place where the Negro's search for simple human dignity must go forever unrewarded; a place where the Negro must live out his days in constant terror of police brutality and bombs that explode in the night.

Mr. Speaker, this is an image of Alabama widely accepted as accurate by many people in this Nation and the rest of the world today. It is, however, an image which has been deliberately, knowingly, and purposefully contrived. I have pointed this out before on this floor. It is, in short, but a part of an effort to divide and to conquer this Nation—and if this effort goes unchallenged, it may well accomplish its purpose.

There is a story here, however, that has been untold and, for the most part, is unknown. While I have but one small voice and what I say here may go unheeded, I would be remiss in my duties if I did not speak the facts for all of America to know—and the facts which I am about to relate are true and I can substantiate every fact. Mr. Speaker, if you think these facts are vile and obscene and are unpleasant to hear, I agree. But think what it is like to have witnessed them and had them occur in your community.

First and foremost there was not one big group of moralists and Negro sympathizers that invaded Selma and marched on Montgomery. There were four distinct and usually identifiable groups intermingled and participating in a common effort but each for its own motives.

This has been characterized by some and depicted as a type of holy crusade. Let me read you a circular actually handed out to the marchers by some of those participating in the march:

WELCOME FREEDOM MARCHERS TO HOLLYWOOD BURLESQUE

(Produced by Paul Moscowwitz and Peggy Anne)

GIRLS—GIRLS—GIRLS—GIRLS—GIRLS

Entertainment and refreshments furnished free to all freedom marchers by the Hollywood 10 Committee in cooperation with the Good Committee To End Bigotry and Censorship.

(Note to ministers: We appreciate the cooperation given this spectacular, modern adventure in person-to-person entertainment by some of you who have cast off the chains of the past. Several of you, including perhaps the leader himself, are trying to make you look too pious and too old-fashioned. Please prevail upon the holdbacks to let the show go on in all of its unrestricted glory, fun, frolic, and warmth.)

TENT 8 NIGHTLY

Tent 8 will be pitched each evening ahead of the march, and the gala burlesque review will begin when the crowd arrives. Let every good man arrive.

(Note to southern girls: Come join in the fun if you can cast off the old-fashioned ideas, whether of racial bigotry or medieval morose morality. Hollywood's greatest tradition beckons you. Come, meet Paul and the boys.)

Is this circular out of character with the rest of the march? Look at the participants.

One group was the Alabama Negro who participated to help secure rights and privileges which he felt had been withdrawn from him illegally. And there are many instances where this has been so—especially historically. This is not universally so in Alabama, however—only in isolated areas and none of these areas recently.

A second group are the do-gooders—those from outside our State who have no personal interest or involvement but who, out of compassion for those whom they are convinced need help and, although misinformed and misguided as to both the full facts and how those whom they seek to help can best be helped, come and participate in the marches, demonstrations and even serious civil disturbances. This group, for the most part are serious, sincere, educated people such as the clergy, nuns, teachers and other professional people. While their purpose may be noble, to a large extent they defeat their own aims because they worsen the condition they seek to improve. Let me hasten to add, however, that not all men who profess to be men of God and who don the clerical robes participate for altruistic reasons. Many are the type Jesus had in mind when he said:

And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to the Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

We of our State do not condemn the first group. Perhaps we would react similarly in like circumstances. We can recognize the good intentions of the second group even though we know their method is wrong.

These two groups, however, make up only a small part of the total effort. Both of these groups are in fact being victimized and used as unwitting tools of the other two groups involved. In the final analysis the Alabama Negro will not achieve what he seeks by the means he now employs, nor will the do-gooders have helped him permanently.

The third group, also a tool being used by the fourth group, are human flotsam: adventurers, beatniks, prostitutes, and similar rabble. They flock to the standard of civil rights because this clothes them with a morality and a purpose which they otherwise lack. The fact is that they are recruited to be full-time demonstrators. They are promised $10 per day, free room and board and all of the sex they want from opposite members of either race. Free love among this group is not only condoned; it is encouraged. It is a fact and their way of life. Only by the ultimate sex act with one of another color can they demonstrate they have no prejudice.

Do I exaggerate? The pamphlet I have read at the beginning of my talk was distributed among the marchers from Selma to Montgomery. Drunkenness and sex orgies were the order of the day in Selma, on the road to Montgomery, and in Montgomery. There were many—not just a few—instances of sexual intercourse in public between Negro and white. News reporters saw this—law enforcement officials saw this, and Mr. Speaker, photographs were taken of this, I am told. I have not seen the actual photographs, but they are being processed and compiled.

Negro and white freedom marchers invaded a Negro church in Montgomery and engaged in an all-night session of debauchery within the church itself. The leadership of the church had to get help to have these freedom marchers put out of their church and even had to have the telephone disconnected because of the long-distance calls. Urinating in the street was not uncommon during demonstrations and more than one of these freedom marchers was arrested for indecent exposure in a public place.

Has anyone stopped to ask what sort of people can leave home, family and job—if they have one—and live indefinitely in a foreign place demonstrating? This is no religious group of sympathizers trying to help the Negro out of a sense of right and morality; this is a bunch of godless riffraff out for kicks and self-gratification that have left every campsite between Selma and Montgomery littered with whisky bottles, beer cans, and used contraceptives. I am prepared to prove these facts.

If you wonder why the Reverend Norman C. Turesdell, of Wubube, Iowa, Rabbi Richard Rubenstein, chaplain of the University of Pittsburgh, and many other ministers and religious leaders left the so-called freedom march in disgust, this is the reason.

Who then, is the one or group that puts these groups together—that gives it cohesiveness, strength, money, and direction? Who or what can wield this diverse group together into a formidable force that can—and has—overcome? The answer is this: the Communist Party.

There are those that make a living out of seeing a Communist behind every bush or tree—or some Communist conspiracy or plot in every action of the State Department or foreign diplomacy. Let me assure you that such is not the case with me. I have not wanted to believe it—but I have been convinced. There are some in the Congress that do not want to believe it—and will not listen to the facts.

A few weeks ago a group of 14 Members from this House made themselves a committee to go to Selma to look into the situation there. In the course of the testimony that was given there, Judge Bernard Reynolds, probate judge of Dallas County, started mentioning the fact that there were Communist influences at work in the streets of Selma. He was interrupted by one of the visiting gentlemen with the remark:

We don't care anything about that. Let's leave the Communists out of this.

I was later impressed with the evident truth of this statement when a vote of the Congress was taken to give or deny an appropriation to the House Un-American Activities Committee. Thirteen of these same fourteen Members voted against the House Un-American Activities Committee—the very committee of this body whose job it is to find out about communism in the U.S.A.

I am sure there are others here and elsewhere that "don't want to hear about Communists." But the facts are here for anyone that has eyes to see. The Communist Party and the Communist apparatus is the undergirding structure for all of the racial troubles in Alabama for the past 3 months.

Look at the speakers on the platform in front of the capitol in Montgomery or participating prominently in the march and demonstrations.

First, Carl Braden: A well-known Communist who has been active in civil rights activities for several years. Carl Braden has been active in so-called civil rights efforts for several years in the South. He was once convicted for conspiring with Negroes in Kentucky to bomb other Negroes' houses.

Second, Abner Berry: One of the directors of the Communist Party in the United States was in and out of the Selma-Montgomery area—and was photographed. I am told. I have not seen the photograph.

Third, James Peck: Field secretary for CORE. He has a Federal criminal record. Mr. Peck and a group of demonstrators once tried to prevent the launching of our first nuclear submarine. Later, he was forcibly removed from a nuclear test area in the Pacific where he had sailed with another group of demonstrators in an attempt to halt our Government's nuclear test program. Does anyone honestly believe that Mr.

Peck is interested in Alabama Negroes' civil rights?

Fourth, Bayard Rustin: Rustin heads an organization known as the War Resisters League—which is the U.S. branch of an international organization known as War Resisters International. The purpose of this organization, in other words Mr. Bayard Rustin's chief business, is to persuade and to aid young men to avoid compulsory military service to their country. As recently as 2 years ago, Bayard Rustin's War Resisters League shared offices in New York City with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Council—otherwise known as SNCC. SNCC was cosponsor, along with Martin Luther King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference of the Montgomery march. Bayard Rustin, by his own admission in the Saturday Evening Post, was a Communist Party organizer for 12 years.

Fifth, And what about the king himself—King Martin Luther. The only man in America that can announce when he will see the President—and it becomes a fact. Martin Luther King himself has amassed the staggering total of more than 60 Communist-front affiliations since 1955. In spite of which Dr. King has been quoted as saying last summer in Greenwood, Miss., that "there are no more Communists in the Mississippi summer project than there are Eskimos in Florida." With King at the time he made this statement was Bayard Rustin, who served as King's executive secretary for 3 years. King has also said that there are no Communists in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Hunter Pitts O'Dell, who took the fifth amendment before the House Un-American Activities Committee, and who was identified by witnesses as a Communist Party member who worked for more than a year with King's SCLC movement. King repeatedly denied that O'Dell was connected with his organization until the facts were proven otherwise, then he admitted that O'Dell had been employed by the SCLC. When King promoted the demonstrations in Birmingham in the summer of 1963, police identified and photographed a number of known Communist and suspected Communist sympathizers in King's supporting groups. His chief of staff at that time was Wyatt T. Walker. Mr. Walker is today editorial advisor to the Progressive Labor Movement, which has been described by Mr. J. Edgar Hoover as a Marxist-Leninist group following the more violent Chinese Communist line. The fact is that Martin Luther King has been virtually surrounded by Communists or Communist-fronters since 1955. No man in America has received more praise or more space coverage in such Communist newspapers as The Worker and People's World as Martin Luther King.

The logical question follows, why would the Communists want to do this? What will they gain? The answer is that years ago a systematic plan was started by the Communists to divide the Deep South from the rest of the Nation by the very tactics they are now using. Divide and conquer. They are being eminently successful. The most disturbing thing about it is that the U.S. Government knows all these facts. That the FBI has a file on King Martin Luther and all the others I have mentioned. Yet the Government helped promote the occurrences in Alabama and even had an Under Secretary of State participate on the program with known Communists, Henry Collins, Director of Community Relations Service, U.S. Department of Commerce, participated in the march. Government officials participate in such activities, and the Justice Department assists in their promotion, all with knowledge and consent of the President.

Mr. Speaker, I implore this body to cast aside all prejudice by color—pro or con. Forget race and look at all the facts objectively. Recently the American public has been made colorblind to the point that black makes red white. America must substitute reason and fact for emotion. We must wake up before it is too late. It may be too late now.

AFFIDAVIT

I, Karl Prussion, a former counterspy for the Federal Bureau of Investigation from 1947 to 1960, do hereby swear under oath and under penalty of perjury, that from the years 1954 through 1959 I attended the county committee meetings of the Communist Party of Santa Clara County, Calif. (A county committee meeting of the Communist Party consists of one delegate representing each county in the county.) The meetings were held during the aforementioned period in the following locations: The residence of Robert Lindsay, Communist, in San Jose, Calif., 1954; the residence of Mary Field, Communist section organizer, Palo Alto, Calif., 1955; the residence of Jacob and Edwin Cerney, both Communists, Menlo Park, Calif., 1958; the residence of Gertrude Adler, Communist, Palo Alto, Calif., 1957; the residence of Karl Prussion, counterspy for the FBI, Los Angeles, 1958; the residence of Myra White, Communist, Mountain View, Calif., 1959.

I hereby further solemnly state that at each and every meeting as set forth above, one Ed Beck, Communist, who is presently secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People of San Mateo County, Calif., and a member of the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), presented the directive from the district office of the Communist Party in San Francisco to the effect that: "All Communists working within the framework of the NAACP are instructed to work for a change of the passive attitude of the NAACP toward a more militant, demonstrative, class struggle policy to be expressed by siting demonstrations, marches, and protests, for the purpose of transforming the NAACP into an organization for the achievement of Communist objectives."

I further swear and attest that at each and every one of the aforementioned meetings, one Rev. Martin Luther King was always set forth as the individual to whom Communists should look and rally around in the Communist struggle on the many racial issues.

I hereby also state that Martin Luther King has either been a member of, or wittingly has accepted support from, over 80 Communist fronts, individuals, and/or organizations, which give aid to or espouse Communist causes.

FATHER LAN LYONS S.J.

Before you read Father Lyons' column this week, we think it is important that you know the 60-member board of the NAACP had this to say in a resolution criticizing Dr. Martin Luther King's linking of the civil rights movement and opposition to the Administration's policy in Vietnam:

"To attempt to merge the civil rights movement with the peace movement, or to assume that one is dependent on the other, is, in our judgment, a serious tactical mistake. It will serve the cause neither of civil rights nor of peace."

This was the statement of the predominantly Negro NAACP; now read an even stronger statement of opposition by Father Lyons, expressing his personal viewpoint.

"THE Holy Spirit gives Dr. King the courage to continue his work. Dr. King is brave. He is like Jesus." The above quotation is from a third grade Catholic reader entitled, "We Follow Jesus," published last year by Benzinger Brothers. It is part of the Word and Worship Program used in thousands of Catholic schools. The book goes on to explain that Martin Luther King "preaches the message of Christ."

On my many visits to Vietnam I often wondered why Dr. King was so indifferent to the fate of the 15 million people there. He has repeatedly complained about our defense of the Vietnamese people because it "costs a lot of money," and he wants the money to go into the poverty program here at home. With these thoughts in mind I went to see this famous Christian leader when he spoke at the Riverside Church on April 4, in New York City. I was never more shocked in my life.

Dr. King practically preached the Communist line. In elaborating on "the madness of Vietnam," Dr. King praised Ho Chi Minh as the only true leader of the Vietnamese people. He condemned the United States as "the greatest purveyor of violence in the world today." He called Ho Chi Minh an independent democratic leader, and condemned the late President Diem as "one of the most vicious modern dictators." "We may have killed a million, mostly children," he said. Where did he dig up the strange statistics? He later admitted that he got his research from Ramparts magazine.

Dr. King obviously crossed the line between responsible dissent and irresponsible divisiveness. Everyone would like to see the war ended, but his five-point proposal amounted to surrender. We can always give up, but that is no solution. It would merely lead to bigger wars. We gave up Laos in 1962, and it led to a larger war in Vietnam.

Urges wide protests

Dr. King praised the Viet Cong as "the only party in real touch with the peasants." He charged that "none of the things we claim to be fighting for are really involved. . . . We have no honorable intentions in Vietnam. . . . Our minimal expectation is to occupy it as an American colony. . . . We are on the side of the wealthy. . . . Our war is against the people of Vietnam. . . . We must all protest. . . . Only Marxism has the revolutionary spirit. . . . If we are to get on the right side of the world revolution, we as a nation must undergo a radical revolution of values."

Dr. King condemned our defense of South Vietnam as a "tragic attempt at recolonization." He urged that strong protests should be made about the governments of Guatemala and Peru, Thailand and Cambodia, Mozambique and South Africa. He urged that committees should be formed to cooperate with revolutionaries in those six countries. Anyone familiar with Communist designs knows that he picked the very countries the Communists want to take over next.

When he had finished, Dr. John Bennett, President of Union Theological Seminary, praised Dr. King's address. Dr. Henry Steele Commager, the dean of American historians, described it as "a great work of art, eloquent and comely, based on the most noble virtue."

The following week, SNCC, the prominent civil rights group, brought Stokely Carmichael to Birmingham, Alabama, where he told the students: "To hell with the laws of the United States." Meanwhile, back at the ranch, CORE, the Congress of Racial Equality, was running half-page ads saying: "Vietnam is a tough problem. But De Gaulle faced a far tougher problem in Algeria. But he had the guts to face it. He lost Algeria."

For several years, as a seminarian, I was in charge of a Negro mission. I am as anxious as anyone to see the Negro progress. But I cannot understand how Catholic people, and especially priests and nuns, can continue to back such groups as SNCC and CORE, or get behind such persons as Martin Luther King. They are disloyal to their country and a discredit to their people. The Negroes in America deserve better leadership than this!

Dear Friend:

America was bewildered and frightened this summer by the bizarre spectacle of American troops fighting simultaneously in Asia and in American cities.

Despite emotional cross currents, many distinguished periodicals and leaders unhesitatingly put the responsibility for the urban outbursts where it belonged - on the wretched life of the ghettos, on haunting unemployment (almost forgotten by white America but a reality for 1/3 of Negro urban youth) - on a war that devours ten times the resources committed to anti poverty programs.

A heartwarming and unexpected development was the finding of a Harris Poll after the riots. 69% of the nation endorsed an emergency work program to provide jobs for all unemployed. An equally astonishing 65% favored demolition of the slums. These programs were first advanced by SCLC.

Despite this mandate by a huge majority for a constructive response to the desperate outbursts, the Administration and Congress offered nothing better than an iron lid for the ghettos. There is no lid that will stay on the ghettos. It can only compress the torture of injustice into a more explosive force.

SCLC cannot support riots for moral and pragmatic reasons. But it cannot condemn them and simply walk away coldly from the unforgivable conditions that cause them.

Government indifference and insensitivity require us to raise nonviolent activity to wholly new levels. We must involve greater masses in our active resistance than ever before. We must be strongly assertive and persistent. Nonviolence can be adapted to militant forms of protest that embody creative disruption while avoiding physical or moral destruction. These methods can sustain protest - as riots cannot - until evils are corrected. Our new application of nonviolence can make anger constructive. Those who support this effort will do more to make democracy real than all the reckless adventurers and all the puerile appeals for pity.

The riots and the cancer of war can destroy the democratic core of American life. However, there are constructive forces that can be organized. We have proven in our successful Cleveland project this summer that we are able to reach the angriest and make them disciplined legions for sound goals. Cleveland was the nation's ripest city for rioting, but violence was averted without quelling militant protest.

No time before had the urgency of the present. In the gigantic tasks which face us we have no government funds. We need your concrete moral and financial assistance to organize sanity and justice. In the South alone we now have more than 100 experienced, dedicated staffers operating registration and voting campaigns, citizenship schools, job creating programs and self-help projects. They make few headlines but they are making new lives for tens of thousands and are inexorably altering the face of the South. Help us today with your fullest generosity to reach our common goal so that we may bring a new spirit of audacious confidence to our troubled land.

With warmest good wishes,

MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr.

NEWS BULLETIN: To our friends
FROM: The SCLC Staff

HISTORY MADE IN CLEVELAND

When the 8th largest American city, Cleveland, nominated a Negro in the Democratic primary for mayor, it did more to curb riots in a fundamental sense than could a hundred military divisions.

Cleveland was the ripest city in the country for a summer riot. Yet, an outbreak was averted because of several unique factors. By the activities during the summer leading to the nomination of Carl Stokes it was demonstrated to Negroes that the political process could work; it was demonstrated that Negro and white could work constructively together; it was demonstrated that the Negro community, from the most militant to the most conservative could be united in a common constructive purpose - an unprecedented unity. Finally it was demonstrated that significant numbers of white voters would support a qualified Negro candidate for a high office. (Many of these white voters were from ethnic groups often pictured as uncompromisingly anti-Negro.)

In the early summer an SCLC staff under Dr. King's personal leadership had moved into Cleveland fresh from lessons learned in Chicago. This was our concentration project for 1967. We moved in with confidence though much of the press had pronounced our methods useless and inadequate for Northern cities. They were to be proven wrong.

We worked to enlarge Negro registration and saw over 20,000 voters added to the lists - the margin that made the victory. We worked for black community unity and achieved it. We worked with thousands of volunteer white college youths who joined Negro slum youths in the first and largest sustained interracial electoral campaign in a major city.

This accomplishment by itself is no guarantee that fundamental problems will be solved. The agony of slum life will take long tenacious effort to resolve. But the Cleveland experience offers this hope -- when the democratic process is genuine, when the spurious substitute is exposed, Negroes and whites are able to attain a positive relationship that can be the basis for the long building process. SCLC is proud of this historic achievement, but cannot rest on only a beginning.

THE NEW YORK TIMES, SUNDAY, AUGUST 27, 1967

CLEVELAND FEARS OF RIOT ALLAYED

Stokes Campaign for Mayor Cited in Easing Unrest

Special to The New York Times

CLEVELAND, Aug. 26—Cleveland, where racial disturbances were expected this summer, have the unexpected good news that they have escaped unscathed so far.

City officials and Negro leaders say the major reasons are:

1. The candidacy of State Representative Carl B. Stokes, a Negro, in the Democratic race for Mayor.

2. The presence of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

3. The fact that Cleveland's "white establishment" has started to support programs in the South and other Negro areas, designed to create new jobs and improve housing conditions.

In 1965, Mr. Stokes, who then ran as an independent, came within 2,143 votes of unseating Mayor Ralph S. Locher, a Democrat. Two other candidates were also in the race.

Chances Rated Good

This year Mayor Locher is being opposed by Mr. Stokes and Frank P. Celeste, former mayor of the Cleveland suburb of Lakewood, in the Oct. 3 Democratic primary.

The winner will face Seth C. Taft, grandson of President William Howard Taft, in the November election.

At the present time Mr. Stokes' chances of winning the nomination are rated as moderately good.

"I think Carl's running for Mayor is the main reason for no riot this year," one Negro spokesman said.

The spokesman said many Negroes who have become disenchanted with the conditions in Cleveland had turned their energy to peaceful uses in working for the Stokes campaign instead of making fire bombs or looting stores.

"There is still a hard core of militants who talk riot," the spokesman said. "But they don't have the support from the brothers they did a year ago."

Dr. King and other officials of his organization have made regular visits to Cleveland to work on programs to help conditions in the ghetto and to break nonviolence. They are working closely with the United Pastors Association, a group composed of Negro ministers.

Dr. King has not openly endorsed Mr. Stokes' candidacy, although he has come close on several occasions. The reason, Dr. King's aides give is that SCLC is a national organization that does not take stands on local issues.

Comments at Rally

"Carl Stokes would make an excellent mayor in any city in the country," Dr. King said recently at a public rally. He has made similar statements at other meetings here.

Programs sponsored by Dr. King have also drawn workers from Negroes who a year ago were taking about riots.

Recently the Congress of Racial Equality received a Ford Foundation grant to conduct a voter registration drive among Negroes here to enable them to vote in the October primary and the November election.

The grant drew critical comment from some whites, who then started their own voter registration drive in an effort to offset any Negro gain in registration.

ANTI-SEMITISM, ISRAEL AND SCLC: A STATEMENT ON PRESS DISTORTIONS

Serious distortions by the press have created an impression that SCLC was part of a group at the Chicago conference of New Politics which introduced a resolution condemning Israel and unqualifiedly endorsing all the policies of the Arab powers. The facts are as follows:

1. The staff members of SCLC who attended the conference (not as official delegates) were the most vigorous and articulate opponents of the simplistic resolution on the Middle East question. As a result of this opposition the Black caucus modified its stand and the convention voted to eliminate references to Zionism and referred to the executive board the matter of final wording. This change was the direct result of the spirited opposition on the floor by Hosea Williams, Southern Director of SCLC.

2. SCLC and Dr. King have repeatedly stated that the Middle East problem embodies the related questions of security and development. Israel's right to exist as a state in security is incontestable. At the same time the great powers have the obligation to recognize that the Arab world is in a state of imposed poverty and backwardness that must threaten peace and harmony. Until a concerted and democratic program of assistance is effected, tensions cannot be relieved. Neither Israel nor its neighbors can live in peace without an underlying basis of economic and social development.

At the heart of the problem are oil interests. As the American Jewish Congress has stated "American policies in the Middle East have been motivated in no small measure by the desire to protect the $2,500,000,000 stake which U.S. oil companies have invested in the area." Some Arab feudal rulers are no less concerned for oil wealth and neglect the plight of their own peoples. The solution will have to be found in statesmanship by Israel and progressive Arab forces who in concert with the great powers recognize that fair and peaceful solutions are the concern of all of humanity and must be found.

Neither military measures nor a stubborn effort to reverse history can provide a permanent solution for peoples who need and deserve both development and security.

3. SCLC and Dr. King have expressly, frequently and vigorously denounced anti-semitism and will continue to do so. It is not only that anti-semitism is immoral - though that alone is enough. It is used to divide Negro and Jew, who have effectively collaborated in the struggle for justice. It injures Negroes because it upholds the doctrine of racism which they have the greatest stake in destroying. The individual Jew or Gentile who may be an exploiter acts out of his greed as an individual, not his religious precepts - just as a criminal, Negro or white, is expressing his anti-social tendencies - not the ethical values of his race.

SCLC will continue tirelessly to denounce racism, whether its form is white supremacy or anti-semitism.

Excerpts from
ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
(Delivered at the 10th anniversary convention of SCLC in Atlanta, Georgia, August 16, 1967)

THE BATTLE OF GRENADA,
MISSISSIPPI

After living for a hundred or more years under the yoke of total segregation, Negro citizens of this Northern Delta hamlet banded together in nonviolent warfare against racial discrimination under the leadership of our affiliated chapter and organization there. That this non-destructive rebellion occurred was as spectacular as were its results. In a few short weeks the Grenada County Freedom Movement challenged every aspect of the society's exploitive life: Stores which denied employment were boycotted, and Voter Registration increased by thousands.

We can never forget the courageous action of the people of Grenada who moved our nation and its federal courts to powerful action in behalf of school integration, giving Grenada, Mississippi, one of the most integrated school systems in America! The battle is far from over, but the black people of Grenada have achieved 40 of 53 demands through their persistent nonviolent efforts.

SCLC IN THE SOUTH

Slowly but surely, our Southern affiliates continued their building and organizing. Seventy-nine counties conducted voter registration drives, while double that number carried on political education and get-out-the vote efforts. Despite press opinions, our staff is still overwhelmingly a Southern-based staff. One hundred and five persons have worked across the South under the direction of Hosea Williams. What used to be primarily a voter registration staff is actually a multifaceted program dealing with the total life of the community, including farm co-operatives, business development, tutorials, and credit unions. Especially to be commended are those 99 communities and their staffs which maintain regular mass meetings throughout the year.

CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION PROGRAM

Our Citizenship Education Program continues to lay the solid foundation for adult education and community organization upon which all social change must ultimately rest. This year, 500 local leaders received training at Dorchester and ten community centers through our Citizenship Education Program. They were trained in literacy, consumer education, planned parenthood, and many other things. This program, so ably directed by Mrs. Dorothy Cotton, Mrs. Septima Clark and their staff of eight persons, continues to cover ten Southern States. An auxiliary feature of C.E.P. is the aid given to poor communities and counties in receiving and establishing O.E.O. projects. With the competent professional guidance of our marvelous staff member, Miss Mew Soong-Li, Lowndes and Wilcox Counties in Alabama have pioneered in developing outstanding poverty programs totally controlled and operated by residents of the area.

SCLC IN THE NORTH

Perhaps the area of greatest concentration of my efforts has been in the cities of Chicago and Cleveland. Chicago has been a wonderful proving ground for our work in the North. There have been no earth-shaking victories, but neither have there been failures. Our open-housing marches, which finally brought about an agreement, actually caused the power structure of Chicago to capitulate to the Civil Rights Movement. These marches and the agreement have finally begun to pay off. After a season of delay during the election periods, a Leadership Conference, which was organized in Chicago to meet our demands for an open city, has finally begun to implement the programs agreed upon last summer. I emphasize, they have only begun, and we must make them finish. But this is not the only important aspect of our work. As a result of our tenant-union organizing, we have begun a four million dollar rehabilitation project which will renovate deteriorating buildings and give the tenants the opportunity to own their own homes. This pilot project was the inspiration for the new home-ownership bill which Senator Percy introduced in Congress only recently.

OPERATION BREADBASKET

The most dramatic success in Chicago has been Operation Breadbasket. Through Operation Breadbasket we have now achieved for the Negro community of Chicago more than 2,200 new jobs worth approximately $18,000,000 a year in new income to the Negro community. Breadbasket has been equally successful in the South. As a result of Operation Breadbasket, over the last three years, we have added about 25 million dollars in new income to the Negro community every year.

SOME IMPORTANT FISCAL FACTS ABOUT SCLC

- Dr. King receives no salary nor any other compensation for his services. Most of our staff receive wages which are either below the poverty line or only slightly above it. This reflects not their ability or competence, but rather their dedication to the movement.
- SCLC is registered with various official state organizations supervising fund appeals.
- Our administrative costs are well below the ratio regarded as standard.
- Our books are audited by Jesse B. Blayton, C.P.A. Our financial statement is available to the public.
- Our fund raising is done in the most careful, economical fashion by our own staff and volunteers. We use no commercial fund raisers to insure that the largest possible portion of your contribution supports active programs.
- Each contributor is kept informed of our activities by periodic bulletins.

IF YOU ALREADY ARE A CONTRIBUTOR TO SCLC...

This mailing is being sent to a group of selected mailing lists other than our own. It has been proven by careful research that we save money by not attempting to eliminate duplication. These mailings, despite their occasional duplications, enable us to substantially enlarge the ranks of our supporters.

YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO SCLC SUPPORTS:

- Voter Registration (North & South).

In response to your letter of November 7th, I made the statement Martin Luther King was the most notorious liar in the country at a press conference on November 18, 1964. I did so because he had grossly distorted the facts concerning our Special Agents who were handling civil rights investigations in the South.

With respect to your comments regarding communism, I have made numerous statements regarding this insidious evil for many years. These remarks have been based on my experience as Director of the FBI, which has the responsibility of investigating matters involving the internal security of the United States. The enclosed material sets forth certain facts concerning the communist menace which I trust will be of interest to you.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

J. Edgar Hoover
F.B.I.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

411
Tonight I heard a speech given by Rev. Freeman Yearling. He quoted the F.B.I. as saying that, "Martin Luther King is the most notorious liar in the nation." I was wondering if the F.B.I. really made such a statement.

Also, I heard one man say that J. Edgar Hoover has made plea after plea to the people in Washington asking them to do something about the communist infiltration in America, but the people in Washington would not listen. I want to know the facts on this also.

There is one last question I would like to ask. I have heard that the communists are actually ahead of schedule in their plans for taking over America. What do you know about this?

EX-100 REC-25 100-106670-3146
I realize that you are an extremely busy man, but I would appreciate it very much if you or someone could send me an answer to my letter, or else some literature that covers my questions. Thank-you so much for your time. 2 NOV 1967

Yours sincerely,

RE: MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

An article in "The Plain Dealer", daily Cleveland newspaper, issue of November 9, 1967, stated that Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., was in Cleveland on November 8, 1967, and commented on the victories of CARL B. STOKES, and RICHARD D. HATCHER, who was elected mayor of Gary, Indiana. KING warned of "massive winter riots in Cleveland, in Gary, or in any other ghetto" unless the business communities and Federal government come to the immediate aid of the nation's poor. (u)

KING said, "I am not in favor of these riots. I will do everything in my power to help avert them". (u)

He also stated that unless immediate aid is given to the ghettos, STOKES and HATCHER will be only "two outstanding men we have set up as lambs for the slaughter". (u)

Concerning future plans, KING told newsmen that he will engage in a two-week retreat in which he will plan ways to prod Congress and the Federal government into action. He was quoted as saying, "We will, if we have to, engage in massive nonviolence, which will probably include acts of civil disobedience". He said that a "cadre of 200 hard-core disrupters will be trained in the tactics of massive nonviolence. These 'disrupters' will then go back to their cities and train other units". The object, he explained, is to hold a "nation-wide city-paralyzing demonstration", centered in Washington, but including simultaneous demonstrations in ten other cities. He told the newsmen that the cities had not yet been determined but added, "I would not rule Cleveland out". (u)

He said, "We have to find the middle ground between riots and timid supplication and we have to develop the moral determination to move down that road if we have to". (u)

On January 4, 1967, [REDACTED] California, telephonically advised the Los Angeles Office of the FBI that his father, [REDACTED], has a history of mental difficulties. He said that his father was recently committed and, according to [REDACTED] was released prematurely. Since his release from the hospital, [REDACTED] has been on a "World Peace Crusade" and seems to be concentrating his efforts on the Vietnam war.

[REDACTED] stated that his father has written the President of the United States on at least two occasions offering a solution to the war and requested an audience with him. Since he has never received an answer, he has expressed the desire to attempt to see the President in person.

[REDACTED] stated that when his father was last in Camarillo State Hospital, Camarillo, California, he discussed on numerous occasions the idea of suicide, but has never attempted to take his life.

He is presently on a long term leave of absence from his job with [REDACTED]

Memorandum

TO : The Director

DATE: 10-20-67

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages 815465 and 815470-815471. Senator Byrd, (D) West Virginia made reference to certain threats made by Martin Luther King, Jr. Mr. Byrd stated it is outrageous effrontery for this man, or any other leader or spokesman of any group, or any special interest, to announce that unless $20 billion is appropriated by Congress each year for poverty—or for any other purpose—or unless this or that or something else is done by Congress, he will make it impossible for the Nation's Capital City to function or operate. He included an editorial entitled "Why Does Congress Bow To Agitators?" which appeared in the Wheeling News-Register on October 25. Mr. Byrd also commented on the recent anti-war demonstration in Washington. He cited the Communist influence in the demonstrations and made reference to the law providing criminal penalties for any person to counsel or be a part of another to dodge the draft. Mr. Byrd stated An editorial in last night's Washington Star pointed out that Yale University Captain William Sloan Coffin, Jr. has publicly defied the Justice Department concerning this law. - - - the star said it would be a sorry day for law enforcement in this country if we prosecute youngsters for destroying draft cards but blink our eyes at the kind of defiance displayed by Captain Coffin and others. I urge the FBI and the Justice Department to move with utmost dispatch to investigate such cases of blatant disregard for the laws of this Nation. He included the editorial with his remarks.

On October 30, 1967, Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr.,
President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), Ralph D. Abernathy, Vice President and Treasurer, SCLC, and Wyatt T. Walker, former SCLC official, departed Atlanta, Georgia, at 3:11 p.m. via Eastern Air Lines flight number 274 en route to Birmingham, Alabama. They were accompanied by Andrew J.
Young, Executive Assistant to the President, SCLC, Bernard
Lee, Special Aid to the President, SCLC, and Hosea Williams, Director of Voter Registration and Political Education, SCLC. u

Prior to his departure from the Atlanta Airport, Reverend King held a short news conference at which SCLC representatives distributed Xerox copies of a four-page type-

Statement by Dr. Martin L. King Jr.
President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference
Atlanta, Georgia

October 30, 1967

Today, Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, Rev. Wyatt Tee Walker, Rev. A. D. King, and I leave Atlanta to present ourselves at the County Jail in Birmingham, Alabama, to serve a prison sentence of five days and to pay fines of $50 each. Our brothers, Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth, Rev. T. I. Fisher, Rev. J. W. Hays, and Rev. John Porter have just completed their sentences in a Birmingham jail. This sentence was imposed upon us following our conviction for breaking an injunction issued by the State courts of Alabama during the memorable days of April 1963.

Before commenting on the dangerous rule of law which supported these iniquitous convictions, we wish to make it crystal clear that we depart for jail in Birmingham convinced that our imprisonment is a small price to pay for the historic achievement which directly flowed from the convictions on the streets of Birmingham, Alabama. We recall with pride how thousands of Negro citizens facing dogs, fire hoses, mass arrests and other outrages against human dignity bore dramatic witness to the evils which pervaded the most segregated city in our nation. History has since recorded how these non-violent demonstrators led to the enactment of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, legislation which finally brought the end of legal segregation.

Today we return to a Birmingham jail once again to bear witness, this time against a weapon which has the potential of doing greater harm to America than Bull Connor's dogs and fire hoses. The weapon is the "X-party injunction" used by hostile local courts to frustrate and silence the vital First Amendment rights of all citizens to assemble and petition when they wish to protest or dissent. Justice Brennan, one of the four dissenting judges, warned that the majority on the Supreme Court "let loose a devastatingly destructive weapon for suppression of cherished freedoms heretofore believed indispensable to maintenance of our free society."

In 1963, Bull Connor did not issue the permits we requested for our demonstrations, then arrested hundreds upon hundreds of demonstrators for marching without a permit and then obtained a state court injunction copying the illegal ordinance to restrict our demonstrating without the very permit he had callously denied.

Four years later in 1967 the majority of the Supreme Court, in an atmosphere charged with war in Vietnam and riots in Northern ghettos, used this "Bull Connor injunction" to deliver a lecture to the Negro people on respect for the law. The majority ruled that it mattered not that the Bull Connor injunction was illegal. The injunction having been issued by a court of law, it must be obeyed until the court which issued it overrules itself or in some distant future the highest court rules on its invalidity. The fallacy of this was pointed out by dissenting Justice Douglas. "If a person must pursue for judicial remedy before he may speak, parade or assemble, the occasion, when protest is desired or needed, will become history and any later speech, parade or assembly will be futile or pointless."

This we then believed was truly the law of the land and we hazarded our liberty on that belief.

One of the most disturbing aspects of this decision was the wholly unfounded claim that we in Birmingham were showing "disrespect for the law." Paraphrasing the inflammatory "law and order" cliché, the majority lectured the Negro on the need for "respect for judicial process" and how the Negro could achieve his "constitutional freedom."

As the four dissenting judges observed, it was the court in Alabama and then the majority of the Supreme Court who were guilty of disobeying the commands of the Constitution. One dissenter strongly observed: "Courts as well as citizens are not free to ignore the procedure of the law. . . constitutional freedom. . . can be won only if judges honor the Constitution."

If and when we engage in civil disobedience we will not litigate, we will not appeal nor will we seek to flee the punishment. It is the heart of civil disobedience that one accepts the consequences willingly and openly. Our purpose when practicing civil disobedience is to call attention to the injustice or to an unjust law which we seek to change. On the streets of Birmingham we were petitioning for redress against an illegal system of segregation. We were illegally enjoined by those who wish to perpetuate that system. At all times we were acting within permissible constitutional boundaries. Chief Justice Warren affirmed this in these strong words: "These facts lend no support to the courts' charges that petitioners were pressuring to act as judges in their own case or that they had disrespect for the judicial process. They did not flee the jurisdiction or refuse to appear in the Alabama court. When they violated the injunction they promptly submitted themselves to the court to test the invalidity of the injunction and the ordinance it parroted. They were in the same position as persons who challenged the constitutionality of a statute by violating it and then defend the ensuing criminal prosecution on constitutional grounds. It has never been thought that violation of a statute indicated such a disrespect for the legislature that the violator always must be punished even if the statute was unconstitutional. . . Indeed, it shows no disrespect for law to violate a statute on the grounds that it is unconstitutional and then to submit one's case to the court with a willingness to accept the penalty if the statute is held to be valid."

What concerns me and what should concern all America is the potential for danger of a decision which in 1967 gives a "U. S. Supreme Court seal of approval" to the injunction which the Chief Justice said "has a long and odious history in this country." It concerns me that we have placed a weapon for repression of freedom in the very hands of those who have fostered today's malignant disorder of poverty, racism and war. Let those who sit in high offices and smugly preach law and order look at the sad disorder of today: the disorder of war with all its violence, of poverty with all its privations and degradation, and racism with all its hate. Let them not look to develop new weapons for repressing the dissenters and protestors who wish to bring a change, who wish to bring order out of this colossal disorder.

As the struggle to re-order our priorities increases we are witnessing an escalating disregard for constitutional freedom. In the last two weeks U. S. Marshals, state trooper and local police have clubbed demonstrators in Washington, Berkeley and Madison, Wis.; police have dragged girls by the hair in Brooklyn, tear gas has scattered and routed protestors in Washington, Berkeley, and Oberlin, Ohio, and even the odious fire hoses of Bull Connor were callously deployed against college students at Oberlin. Student arrests in this short period are beginning to reach levels unknown in this country since Selma. As we leave for a Birmingham jail today, we call out to America: "Take heed. Do not allow the Bill of Rights to become a prisoner of war."

[REDACTED] who attended the mass meeting at the Tabernacle Church, 1013 North 25th Street, Birmingham, furnished the following information:

[REDACTED] advised that Rev. Martin Luther King addressed a gathering of over 200 persons and told them that his itinerary for the next week will be that on November 4 he will travel to Atlanta, Georgia, and then on November 6 he plans to travel to Cleveland, Ohio. Rev. King said that on November 7, 8 and 9 he will be in New York City. He will return to Atlanta on November 10, travel to Chicago, Illinois, on November 11, and on November 12 go to New York City. Rev. King said that on November 13, 1967, he will depart for Europe and King said that he is having his passport prepared so that he can visit Russia during this trip.

Rev. King told the gathering at the Tabernacle Church that he has decided to stage a "camp-in" in Washington, D. C., with massive acts of civil disobedience. He advised that plans for this "march on Washington" will be finalized when he returns from his European trip. King said that he intends to completely paralyze Washington.

[REDACTED] advised that Ralph Abernathy also addressed the gathering at the Tabernacle Church and stated in regard to the U. S.'s participation in the Vietnam war that such participation was unjust and unholy. b7(D)

[REDACTED] advised that Martin Luther King, Jr., arrived in Grinnell at about 11:30 a.m., October 29, 1967, having chartered a plane in Chicago, Illinois, which landed at the airport in the neighboring town of Newton, Iowa. [REDACTED] stated that King spoke at a church service at Darby Gymnasium, Grinnell College to a crowd of approximately 5,000, and that the title of his speech was "Remaining Awake through a Revolution". He stated that King had been invited by the Grinnell College administration.

b7(D)

[REDACTED] advised that King said in his speech that if the United States continues the war in Vietnam it could lead to World War III and that the "war hawks" do not seem to realize this.

[REDACTED] King saying that he did not mind the inconvenience and agony of five days in jail because the demonstrations resulted in the passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act. King stated, "Unmerited suffering is always redemptive."

b7(D)

[REDACTED] stated that King left Grinnell at about 3:00 p.m., October 29, 1967, for Newton, Iowa, where he flew in his chartered plane back to Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] advised that King was scheduled to take a commercial airliner from Chicago to Atlanta, Georgia.

b7(D)

[REDACTED] advised that there were no incidents of any nature which occurred during King's visit to Grinnell.

The Des Moines Register in an article dated October 30, 1967, stated that King, in an answer to his critics who say that he should stick to preaching about civil rights, stated, "It would be rather foolish to be concerned about integrating schools and not be concerned about the survival of the world we are trying to integrate." King is also quoted as saying, "No nation can really win a "war" and that the "choice is between nonviolence and non-existence." The article also stated that King attacked the "myth of overstressing the bootstrap philosophy." King stated that such a philosophy "doesn't help the Negro" who came to this country involuntarily and was brought up as a slave.

The article further quoted King as saying, "They don't realize the nation made the Negroes' color a stigma." He said, "The Federal Government is giving those same people money not to farm who say the black man should lift himself up by his own bootstraps."

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

[REDACTED] advised that he had received information from a very reliable source that Father GROPPi, from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, b7(D) will join with Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. and proceed to Birmingham, Alabama sometime next week, so KING can surrender to local authorities and serve his sentence. The method of travel, and from where KING and Father GROPPi will travel, is unknown, but possibly they will travel by plane.

[REDACTED] according to information received, b7(D) Father GROPPi will attempt to form some demonstrations in Birmingham, Alabama while KING is in jail. After KING serves his time, he and Father GROPPi will proceed to Montgomery, Alabama.

This information was furnished to [REDACTED] b7(C) Alabama State Department Of Public Safety, Montgomery, Alabama, and [REDACTED] Military Intelligence, Third Army, Montgomery, Alabama, on October 20, 1967.

Attached for your approval for dissemination to friendly news media sources is a copy of a Negro newspaper editorial attacking Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

BACKGROUND:

King's group is in desperate need of funds. In an effort to combat this problem, King has organized a variety show starring Harry Belafonte, well-known Negro vocalist with a subversive background, to tour seven major cities in the United States. The proceeds will go to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. King is touring with the group and speaks during each performance.

The attached editorial entitled "Think Twice Before Going to Coliseum Tuesday Night" appeared in the "Forward Times," the leading Negro newspaper in Houston, Texas. This paper attacks King for his stand on Vietnam and claims his appearance in Houston is "an imposition on the community." King is also referred to as "a misguided 'Moses' who has lost himself." In addition, the article claims King's position regarding the Vietnam war "borders upon treason." Further, "a man who will not fight for his country hasn't got any civil rights or any respect due him."

OBSERVATIONS:

b(2) b7(D)
[REDACTED] has advised us that this news item is extremely irritating to King. In addition, the advanced ticket sales were slow in Houston, Texas, prior to the performance on October 17, 1967. This newspaper story may have caused many of the citizens of Houston to "think twice before going" and indeed, not go at all. JS

It is felt that if this article is given wide-spread publicity as how thinking Negroes really feel about King, two objectives can be accomplished. One, publicize King as a traitor to his country and race. Secondly, reduce his income from these shows since he has five more performances to give; namely, Chicago, Illinois, October 19; Cleveland, Ohio, October 21; Washington, D. C., October 23; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, October 26; and Boston, Massachusetts, October 27.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

The attached be forwarded to Crime Records Division for dissemination to appropriate friendly news media sources.

ENCLOSURE

Several weeks ago FORWARD TIMES made an editorial expression which stated, among other things, that Dr. Martin Luther King had strayed off onto an extremely dangerous course which ran in the opposite direction from the civil rights leadership course that vast numbers of citizens had come to know and respect him for over a wide span of years.

Now, we wish to make it crystal clear that this newspaper, of course, respects and upholds Dr. King's right to take a position that is, what we think to be, contrary to good judgement. If he wishes to be the spokesman for the 'peaceniks', that's his business. When, however, Dr. King joins with others and tries to impose that poor judgement upon the entire Negro community which is already beset with more in-depth and complicated problems than can apparently be coped with, at that point we call it our business.

FORWARD TIMES takes the position that Dr. King's visit to Houston next Tuesday night is an imposition upon this community of the first order. We also think that the fact that he is shrouding his "remarks" behind a big name popular singer like Aretha Franklin suggests subterfuge. If Aretha Franklin, who is now at the peak of fame, permits this group of 'peaceniks' to use her name to further their efforts, all that we can say is, "that's her business." If she wakes up later and finds that she has acted just like Tokyo Rose and Axis Sally, all that we can say is that she brought it all upon herself.

Our concern is not so much with what course Dr. King and Miss Franklin elect to follow. What concerns us is that the innocent public, if not properly forewarned, might be taken in by their visit to Houston. We think that if what Dr. King has to say isn't within itself meritorious enough to draw a crowd, he shouldn't be coming to town in the first place to say it. As it stands now, Aretha Franklin's name has been added to the show and many people will pay the fee expecting to hear her sing. She will be the 'bait' to help get the crowd inside the Coliseum. Once inside, the trapped ticket purchasers will have to sit quietly while Dr. King spews about the "immorality" of the war in Viet Nam. Whether we like it or not, the United States of America is at war with a determined aggressor. How we got into this war matters little at this point. The bold truth is that we are shooting 'live' ammunition at them and they are shooting the same type back at us with remarkable effectiveness.

Looking at the conflict logically and realistically, we cannot escape the fact that we have absolutely no course open to us but to disregard all of the babble of weaklings. We, as bonafide American citizens, must take a stand with our country. In our actions, in our conversations and in our preachments, we must give no aid and no comfort to the enemy.

We must remember that all wars are immoral and when Martin Luther King preaches about how immoral the American bullets are and fails to offer us an alternative for stopping those immoral bullets being fired at our boys, we have got to take the ex-civil rights worker to task for his oversight.

There is no middle ground here for any misguided "Moses" who has lost himself. King got lost just outside of Chica-

...hasn't the same since. We can't sit by and allow him to lose the minds of Negro citizens also just because he won't do his own way.

Crispus Attucks didn't call the cause a Boston Commons "Immoral". He stood up like a man and fell like a proud sinner. From that moment on each black man who ever stood up for America

...stood
...battle

...away places ... the

...since Crispus Attucks first
...up his ... the ... the na-

...grown ... and it is ... of ... even ... we have

...blessed by the Almighty ... to
...to have strong men at the ...

...who didn't ... for
...to fight for God and the ...

...there is not ... now
...should settle for anything ... that

...they ... have ...

As we see it, Dr. Martin Luther King is expecting that we Negroes take something less than the courageous route.

...the ... has
...the ...

...in other ... the Negro problems just long enough to get the attention of the ... and then he will

...to the ... set of taking the lesser route ... the war and this country is now engaged in.

FORWARD TIMES firmly believes that in the long run we will lose all ... all respect that the total community might

...for us ... and
...and ...

...the ...

A man who will not fight for his country hasn't got any civil rights or any respect due him. For Dr. Martin Luther King to try and cloud our people's minds, in regards to helping our country in its hour of need, borders upon treason.

There is no soft middle when one's country is at war or in trouble that will allow room for ambitious men to play
"footy" with wild hairbrained schemes.
Either you fight or you run. Either you support your fighting men or you sabotage them with preachments that sound good, give hope and give courage only to the enemy.

Even though Negro citizens have had differences 'at home' they have always stood firmly shoulder to shoulder with the remainder of America when the going got rough. FORWARD TIMES believes that this will continue despite people like Martin Luther King and company.

It puzzles us how Harry Belafonte was selected to headline a show that was supposed to be aimed in the Negro interest. We cannot help but wonder how much real concern he has for the suffering of Negro womanhood. As we recall, once he got famous, he quit his Negro wife and married a white woman. We don't have anything against marrying white women, but when you do, don't come into Houston and try to charge hardworking Negro women $7.50 admittance fee under the pretext that they are going to hear one thing and something else is up your sleeve.

Of course, Houston citizens are free to do anything that they choose about attending this show. All that we ask is that you THINK TWICE BEFORE GOING.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

0 The purpose of my letter is to ask if the FBI has on file any documentation to the effect that Dr. Martin Luther King is a member of the Communist party or, whether a member or not, he supports the Communist cause. I refer of course to a proven fact and not the subjective evaluations of those in America who dislike or oppose him. My reason for making inquiry is not that I suspect the loyalty of Dr. King; it is that a member of our church here has made this charge and it will be helpful to me to know whether the charge can be documented.

Sincerely,

On October 16, 1967, King spoke at Sacramento State College, Sacramento, California, before an audience of approximately 6,000 people on "The Future of the Civil Rights Movement". King stated during his speech that the civil rights movement has changed from seeking an end to legal segregation to a movement seeking genuine equality in America. He pointed out that there must be a massive plan - a Bill of Rights - a Marshall Plan - a freedom budget, for the disadvantaged. He stated that his opposition to the unjust Vietnam War was based in part on its diversion of resources away from the war on poverty and he added that our nation is fighting two wars and is losing both.

King stated he still believes in nonviolence as firmly as he did during the 1955 boycott of segregated buses in Montgomery, Alabama, as it is still the most potent weapon available to the black man. He predicted that the country would continue to have long hot summers and dark nights of social disruption if unjust conditions are not changed. He urged the Negroes to take part in massive action programs to achieve political equality.

King was introduced by California State Senator Mervyn Dymally of Los Angeles. Professor Dean Dorn of Sacramento State College acted as Chairman of the event, representing the cultured programs committee.

BOMB PLACED IN BOVARD

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA DURING SPEECH BY DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., OCTOBER 16, 1967
BOMBING MATTER - THREAT

The "Daily Trojan", a publication of the University of Southern California (USC), on Monday, October 16, 1967, published a front-page article in which it was disclosed that Dr. Martin Luther King would speak in Bovard Auditorium at 8:00 p.m., October 16, 1967. His appearance was under the sponsorship of the Great Issues Forum, and according to the paper, was the forum's third presentation of the semester. King's subject was "The Negro in America".

[REDACTED] advised that Dr. King, accompanied by Dora McDonald, Secretary to Dr. King; Andrew Young, Executive Director, Southern Christian Leadership Conference; and Dr. Bernard Lee, Administrative Assistant, arrived in Los Angeles via United Airlines from Sacramento, California at 7:15 p.m., October 16, 1967. They proceeded from the airport to the Hyatt House, 6211 West Century Boulevard, Los Angeles where they occupied rooms 215, 216 and 217.

ENCLOSURE

[REDACTED] advised that at 8:10 p.m. on October 16, 1967, the Los Angeles Fire Department (LAFD) received an anonymous telephone call to the effect that a bomb was scheduled to go off at 8:25 p.m. at Bovard Hall which is located on the campus of USC. The USC Campus Police were immediately notified, who promptly evacuated Bovard Hall and searched the premises but no bomb was located.

b7(D)

On October 16, 1967, [REDACTED] stated that Dr. King was the principal speaker at Bovard Hall from 8:00 to 9:45 p.m. with the exception of some 20 minutes interruption while the hall was being searched in view of the anonymous bomb threat. Approximately 1500 persons were removed from the auditorium during the course of the bomb search according to [REDACTED]

b7(D)

The "Daily Trojan" (supra), on October 17, 1967, reported that Dr. King, during the course of his interrupted talk, advocated a program of massive civil disobedience as the civil rights movement enters "the more difficult phase of its struggle." The article noted that Dr. King challenged an audience of nearly 1800 to rid itself of the three myths: "that only time can solve the problems", "that legislation has no role to play", and that "the bootstrap philosophy" has any meaning for the Negro today. The article reported that Dr. King, who interrupted an eleven-day fund-raising tour with Harry Belafonte to speak on the campus, was nearly halfway through his speech when he was interrupted with the announcement that the standing-room-only crowd should leave the auditorium immediately because of an emergency.

The emergency was a telephone call to the Los Angeles Fire Department warning of a bomb planted in Bovard Hall. The crowd cleared quickly while Dr. King and his party were taken to the President's Conference Room, and in less than half-an-hour the LAFD Bomb Squad had searched the auditorium in vain and Dr. King resumed his speech.

Whereas before the unexpected break he had embarked on a general overview of the American Negro's history of long despair and recent accomplishments, the charismatic civil rights leader returned to speak of the current riots and the need to go "the long, long distance that still lies ahead."

"The Long Hot Summer is always preceded by the Long Cold Winter", he noted "and the cold winter is not being used creatively enough to make justice a reality for all people."

Riots and social disruption are not caused by slavery, slums and unemployment, but "by the policy makers of our nation," he said.

Dr. King also urged the students to reject three myths he saw retarding the Negroes' move for freedom.

"The myth that only time can solve the problem," he explained, is wrong because "time is neutral and can be used either constructively or destructively.

"The myth that legislation has no role to play," Dr. King said, falls short by assuming that only a change of heart really counts.

"I'm a Baptist preacher and I'm in the heart-changing business.

"But while morality may not be legislated, behavior can be regulated; and while the law can't make a man love me, it can restrain him from lynching me."

The third myth, that of overplaying "the bootstrap philosophy," ignores the fact that the Negro, who was brought to America 350 years ago against his will, is being asked to do what white immigrants who arrived 100 years ago never had to, he said.

At the time of the Negro's emancipation, he explained, the former slaves were left landless, penniless and illiterate, while the vast lands of the West and Midwest were given to recent European immigrants, land-grant colleges were being established and techniques were employed to teach them more effective means of farming.

He departed from his views on integration to restate his stand against the war in Vietnam.

Calling for America "to stand up and say to the world we made a mistake in Vietnam," the Nobel Peace Prize winner was greeted with a 20-second applause, the longest of the night until the final ovation.

"Justice is indivisible," he said, "but injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere."

[REDACTED], 115th MI, U. S. Army, Pasadena, was advised of the anonymous bomb threat at 9:16 p.m., October 16, 1967, by Special Agent [REDACTED] b7(c) who also notified [REDACTED] Special Agent, Secret Service, Los Angeles, at 9:24 p.m. on the same date.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On the evening of October 15, 1967, a fund raising benefit performance for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) was held at the Oakland, California, Coliseum.

The program consisted of opening remarks and short vocal performance by Sammy Davis, Jr., vocal performances by Harry Belafonte and Joan Baez, and a short talk by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Sammy Davis, Jr., in his opening remarks stated that all races must live together and he knew this could be done. He further stated that the good, responsible people must see that this is done in a peaceful manner; and the "radicals on either side" must not be permitted to take over.

Dr. King, in his talk of about fifteen minutes, spoke of the necessity of peaceful coexistence of all races. He said the American Negroes must have better housing, better jobs, and economic security. He stated that the present administration of the U.S. Government should not be so preoccupied with the "evil, unnecessary war in Vietnam"; but should be fighting the war against racism at home.

Joan Baez at the close of her performance stated she was going to participate in a "sit-in" at the Oakland, California, induction center starting at 6:00 a.m., October 16, 1967, and invited the audience to join her. She said the purpose of this sit-in was to ask the young men being inducted into the military service if they want to go to Vietnam. She also said that when Sammy Davis, Jr., makes his planned trip to Vietnam in the near future, she hopes he will ask all the U.S. soldiers there to come home.

The following information has been supplied by confidential sources of this Bureau who have furnished reliable information in the past.

Recently Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was in contact with his principal advisor, Stanley Levison, concerning a speech he is to give on November 11, 1967, in Chicago, Illinois, to a trade union group which was formed to oppose the war in Vietnam. Levison informed King there will also be speakers from the automobile union, the clothing union, and the butchers union.

Levison assured King that there is plenty of material in the manuscript he is preparing for King's speech. Levison informed King he has been going to the Labor Library and has found some antiwar speeches made by some labor leaders such as Phil Murray of the American Federation of Labor, Congress of Industrial Organizations.

Levison then advised King about a 'vicious' editorial which appeared in the leading Negro newspaper in Houston, Texas, attacking King's position on the Vietnam war. King complained that there almost appears to be a conspiracy to defeat Negro leadership throughout the Nation.

King then discussed the Supreme Court's rejection of his appeal of the five-day jail sentence he received for a demonstration in Birmingham, Alabama, in 1963. King confided that he and the other individuals sentenced with him will present themselves to the Birmingham authorities in the near future. It is King's belief that the Birmingham authorities do not want to

b(2) b7(D)

Recently [redacted] advised Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), was in contact with his principal advisor and long-time Communist Party member, Stanley Levison. They discussed a speech King is to give on November 11, 1967, at Chicago, Illinois, to a trade union group which was formed to oppose the war in Vietnam. Levison informed King there will also be speakers from other unions at this meeting.

Levison assured King that there is plenty of material in the manuscript he is preparing for King. Levison stated he had found antiwar speeches by some labor leaders which he will include in King's speech.

Levison complained about a 'vicious' editorial which appeared in a Negro newspaper in Houston, Texas, which attacked King's stand on the Vietnam war.

They then discussed King's proposed incarceration in Birmingham, Alabama, in the near future. King advised Levison that if he goes to jail, the people of Birmingham will conduct some type of demonstration to dramatize this action.

On October 9, 1967, the final edition of the "Atlanta Journal", daily Atlanta newspaper, carried an article on page one entitled Washington captioned, "Butts Wins Appeal In $460,000 Suit." This article, in part, reflected that on October 9, 1967, the United States Supreme Court had "Refused to re-examine the contempt of court convictions of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and several other Negro ministers who led desegregation demonstrations in Birmingham in 1963."

POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE
BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

On October 10, 1967, the "Atlanta Journal" in its final edition on page 20-A published an article captioned, "He'll Serve Jail Term, King Says". This article, in part, quoted Reverend King as follows:

"I shall willingly and in clear conscience go to jail along with my colleagues in Birmingham to make a witness for my basic beliefs."

The article indicated that Reverend King criticized the recent action of the United States Supreme Court changing the court had "turned its back on an appeal to reason and the most fundamental freedom that all Americans should cherish". According to the article, Reverend King stated he would go to Birmingham in order to serve the jail sentence when instructed to do so by local authorities.

GANDHI SOCIETY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

The Gandhi Society for Human Rights was formed for the purpose of developing a philosophy and technique of non-violent civil rights protests. It is a non-action organization and makes no attempt to influence legislation nor participate in demonstrations. The Society furnishes legal assistance in certain civil rights cases. The organization was incorporated June 14, 1962. 4

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of January 2, 1957, to supersede Guide published on May 14, 1951, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following information concerning "The National Lawyers Guild:"

1. Cited as a Communist front.

(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311, on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149).
2. Cited as a Communist front which "is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations and controlled unions" and which "since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents." (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally released September 17, 1950.)
3. "To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the  National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection."

(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91).

Security Matter - C

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned on October 9, 1967, that Martin Luther King, Jr. and Stanley Levison discussed the Mayoralty primary in Cleveland, Ohio, in which Carl Stokes, a Negro, was the victor. King commented that Carl (Stokes) won because of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and himself. He stated that if the Negro vote had remained where it was the last time, which was 60 per cent, Stokes could not have won. He noted that they (SCLC) turned out 75 per cent which was unheard of.

Levison agreed that this figure is unheard of in a primary and that in a general election about 69 per cent register and 50 per cent turn out. Levison stressed that King must fight for recognition because some people have been able to put across the notion that King failed in Chicago and in the South. He said Cleveland is a magnificent answer to this.

According to the source, King and Levison discussed whether Stokes would admit to King's contribution. King said he feels that Stokes will admit it after he is elected in November. King noted that Stokes told him that he could not have won the primary if it had not been for the SCLC presence in Cleveland, that he would have lost but for King's presence in the Negro community which resulted in keeping it together.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned on October 11, 1967, that Stanley Levison told Chauncey Eskridge, a legal advisor to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) from Chicago, Illinois, that he planned on being in Chicago, on November 11, 1967, at which time Martin Luther King, Jr. is scheduled to speak at a trade union conference. Levison noted that there is a trade union group which was formed to oppose the (Vietnam) war. He said there will be speakers from the automobile union, the clothing workers union, and the butchers union. S discussed a speech which King is recording. According to the source, it was indicated that Levison prepared the manuscript for this speech which deals, in part, with the Negro riots during the summer of 1967. Levison told King that he has almost completed another manuscript which is concerned with Vietnam and contains some new approaches. He asked King to review it carefully so that he might become comfortable with it.

King commented that he was thinking of the speech he is to give before a "peace labor group". Levison assured him that there is much material in the manuscript he is preparing which can be used for that speech. He added that he had been going to the labor library and had come up with some anti-war speeches by people such as Phil Murray of the American Federation of Labor, Congress of Industrial Organizations.

King referred to the Supreme Court's rejection of his appeal from a five-day sentence for a demonstration in Birmingham, Alabama, in 1963. He told Levison that they had decided to present themselves on the 30th (month not named), acknowledging that they may not, at that time, be arrested. He said he feels that the authorities in Birmingham do not want them in jail. He noted that many people in Birmingham want to do something about it such as a vigil around the jail and that he feels that they need to do something to dramatize this. King said they would go and present themselves and see what happens. He said there is an agreement that if any of the other defendants in Birmingham are arrested, he would stop what he is doing and go to Birmingham.

The same source advised on October 12, 1967, that on that date, Stanley Levison arranged taping dates for a series that Martin Luther King, Jr. is doing for CBC in Toronto, Canada. It was decided that the taping dates would be arranged for New York City with the broadcast dates being November 20 and 27 and December 4, 11 and 18, 1967. Levison noted that King could not be present for a taping date on November 13, 1967, because we will be in England to receive an award. 8

This source subsequently determined on October 12, 1967, that on that date, Levison contacted Martin Luther King, Jr. Levison was concerned about an article that appeared in the leading Negro newspaper in Houston, Texas, which he said was a vicious editorial on King's position in Vietnam. He said the article was titled "Think Twice Before You go to the Coliseum" and urged Negroes not to go. Levison indicated that this was some type of benefit for King and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. He said tickets for it have not moved well in Houston. He added that it seemed to be almost a conspiracy to defeat Negro leadership. S

King noted that he will be in Chicago on November 11, 1967, and intends to fly to London from there. He also said he is speaking at the University of Buffalo on November 9, 1967. 8

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : The Director

DATE: 10-5-67

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages H13905-H13917. Congressman Ashbrook, (R) Ohio, spoke concerning Martin Luther King and stated "While alert Americans generally seem intent on discovering the facts, - - - there is a strange silence and lack of debate when it comes to Martin Luther King. It is almost as if he is being consciously protected by the press - - -. He has openly associated with the most radical elements in our society. I believe he has done more for the Communist Party than any other person of this decade." Mr. Ashbrook set forth background information on King and his connection with the civil rights movement. He spoke concerning the Chicago riots of July 1966 and advised that the Chicago Tribune reported that prior to the riots, King had shown films detailing the violence in Watts. Mr. Ashbrook stated "The films add another dimension to the activities of King that are well known by law enforcement officials. Their general reaction to King is summed up by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover in this statement: 'Unfortunately, some civil rights leaders in the past have condoned what they describe as civil disobedience in civil rights demonstrations. Martin Luther King, Jr., for example, after arriving in Chicago, Ill., early in 1966 in connection with the civil rights drive there, commented about the use of so-called civil disobedience in civil rights demonstrations and said: "It may be necessary to engage in such acts - - -. Once an individual has to break a particular law in order to obey a higher law." Such a course of action is fraught with danger for if everyone took it upon himself to break any law that he believed was morally unjust, it is readily apparent there would soon be complete chaos in this country.'"
